It is now very generally conceded that the common sense view of the two occurrences was the latter one, and accordingly the Propter hoca" have been the subject of a great deal of ridicule in the school books. So much so, that they have shool books. So much so, that they have since served to represent all sorts of stupid people, like the editors of the Berkeley Union, who ignorantly and laughably attribute a wild-spread change like that involved in the late election to a few persons here in Ohio county, simply, because that like the rise in the creek after the fall of the steeple, the the creek after the fall of the steeple, the defeat of the Republican party occurred comprehending the point of the above after the Oldo county movement.

we differ a little from the editors of that paper in our views of the result in the late election. We think we can see in the returns something more correspondent and adequate to the change that has occurred than the mere disappointments of a few politicians. We think we can see in them a few traces of the malign influence of certain men who have made Republican rule in the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia odious and intolerable. What class caused the unprecedented changes in Jefferson, Berkeley and Morgan counties, where so many people were disfranchised and where, as was publicly intimated in this city three years ago by a member of the Legislature from that part of the State, the number could be and would be increased if it was necessary.

We rather think that the doings of such men in the Eastern part of the State, and such others as NAT. HARRISON in the Southwest had something to do with the Southwest had something to do with the Southwest had something to do with the change that has taken place.
